WISE OWLS CARE CLUB

NEWSLETTER JAN 16

Welcome Back!

Wise Owls would like to take this opportunity to wish you all a Happy New Year and we do hope you are all refreshed from the festive holiday period. We would also like to express our gratitude for all the kind messages and cards we received, they really do mean a lot.

Holiday Fun!

Fantastic trip to Northwood garden centre to see Santa and the Reindeers.

Role Play Area

Our role play area will be turned into a restaurant for all the children to visit, celebrating the different foods available from the menu.

Fact - The New Year's Eve dinner is the most important dinner for the Chinese. Normally, this is the family reunion dinner.

Questionnaires

Thank you to all the parents that have returned their questionnaires. Very positive and constructive feedback so far and some of the information that was given has been acted upon already.

The closing date has now been extended until the 11th January 2016.

Acting Manager

With effect from the 4th of January, Lauren will be taking over the role of Acting Manager. Lauren has a Level 3 in Childcare and is also the Safeguarding Lead for the setting. Lauren has experience in deputising for the Manager and has a wealth of knowledge about the Early Years Framework. Rest assured, whilst in this role she will receive the same guidance and support Laura received. An excellent opportunity for her!

Vacancies

We are currently looking to fill two vacancies at Wise Owls. We are looking for a Manager and a Playworker, if you think you are the right person to fill one of those roles, or indeed may know of someone else who might fit the bill, please follow the links on the Job Vacancies page of our website for full details.

Booking Forms

In order for Wise Owls to operate effectively we kindly ask that all parents ensure they complete a booking form at the beginning of term.

Registration forms and booking forms are available in the club and now can also be downloaded from our club website:

Club Rules

In January the children will be involved in refreshing and implementing the rules for our club. This will take the form of a discussion at break time and a vote.
